

PORT MARSEILLAN

SOUTH OF FRANCE

THE MEDITERRANEAN'S BEST-KEPT SECRET

Propriétés & Co is proud to introduce you to PORT MARSEILLAN Resort & Residences

Situated on the shores of the Thau Lagoon, between Cannes and Barcelona, PORT MARSEILLAN embodies authentic luxury deeply rooted in the French art de vivre.

Surrounded by pristine landscapes, bathed in 300 days of sunshine, and enriched by the timeless charm of an upscale yet unpretentious village, it offers a truly distinctive Mediterranean experience.

The Thau Lagoon is the Mediterranean’s seafood capital and the heart of its oyster culture. Around it stretch renowned vineyards, Roman heritage sites, and protected coastlines where time seems to stand still.

PORT MARSEILLAN creates a true village within a village — offering residents the intimacy of a private resort with effortless access to the cafés, markets, and harbour life that make this community so vibrant.

The resort will feature over 30 world-class amenities, including three signature spaces: the Wine & Lifestyle Academy, the My Oasis Foundation, and a state-of-the-art Wellness Center.

If such a rare French art de vivre speaks to you, we invite you to discover what makes Marseillan and the Thau Lagoon so exceptional — and why those who experience it often make it their second home for life.

PORT MARSEILLAN

SOUTH OF FRANCE

Resort & Residences The Mediterranean's best-kept secret

A new chapter in Mediterranean living begins here, where vines cascade toward the lagoon and a village comes to life around a sun-dappled square.

PORT MARSEILLAN unfolds as a true village within a village: a 5-star hotel with 72 rooms overlooking the water, lagoon-front villas and pool villas nestled in Mediterranean gardens, apartments and penthouses with panoramic views.

At the heart, the Placette: boutiques, restaurants, art gallery, café terraces beneath the plane trees. Beyond, the Montpenède Vineyard Private Club spans 36 hectares of waterfront vineyards and olive groves, a sanctuary for those who seek both escape and belonging.

With 24/7 concierge service and Marseillan's historic harbor just steps away, every comfort is within reach, yet the world feels wonderfully distant.

A place where time slows, the sea whispers, and the art de vivre is not a promise, but a daily truth.

The Vision

A RARE EXPRESSION OF SOUTHERN GRACE.

PORT MARSEILLAN was born from a singular conviction: to create a resort not as an imposition upon the landscape, but as a natural extension of it.

Marseillan is a village of quiet permanence, a historic port since the Middle Ages, birthplace of Noilly Prat vermouth, where fishermen still unload their catch at the harbor and life follows the rhythm of tides and harvests. Streets carry the scent of the day's market, café terraces remain unchanged for generations, and the Mediterranean lifestyle unfolds in full authenticity.

This spirit guides every design choice: architecture inspired by Languedoc bastides, materials drawn from the land, spaces that breathe with the seasons. PORT MARSEILLAN honors this territory, offering not an escape from the world, but a gateway into an art of living that has endured for centuries.

An Unforgettable First Impression

The entrance to PORT MARSEILLAN opens onto another world.

The wrought-iron gate reveals an avenue bordered by cypresses and centuries-old olive trees. Noise fades, replaced by the song of cicadas. Around a bend, the lagoon appears—vast, peaceful, shimmering. The porte-cochère welcomes arrivals within an architecture blending tradition and modernity. Here begins the PORT MARSEILLAN experience: that immediate sense of arriving somewhere rare, preserved, authentic. Welcome home.

Architectural and Lifestyle Inspiration

WHERE HERITAGE MEETS THE TIMELESS

PORT MARSEILLAN's architecture draws inspiration from Languedoc's winegrowers' estates: bastides with ochre facades, colorful shutters, courtyards shaded by century-old plane trees.

Canal tile roofs, arcades, wooden pergolas, and cut-stone walls dialogue with historic Marseillan. Yet heritage fidelity excludes no modernity.

Generous volumes, large bay windows, fluid indoor-outdoor spaces: Lázaro Rosa-Violán, one of Europe's finest interior designers, has created atmospheres blending Mediterranean sobriety with eclectic touches.

1 WELLNESS

Waters of Wellbeing

THE RHYTHM OF THE THAU LAGOON,
WHERE TIME SLOWS
AND THE BODY BREATHE

At PORT MARSEILLAN, water becomes a ritual of regeneration. The main pool stretches along the lagoon front, creating an infinity illusion with the emerald horizon of the Thau. A second pool nestles within the residence gardens.

The wellness philosophy draws inspiration from Roman thermae and Mediterranean bathing traditions, a journey through heat, steam, and water that honors centuries of ritual. Treatments infused with local essences, olive, grape, and sea salt, reconnect body and soul to this terroir.

In the serenity gardens, private cabanas and panoramic views of the lagoon invite stillness and contemplation.

SPA, A SANCTUARY OF MEDITERRANEAN WELLNESS

PORT MARSEILLAN Spa offers indoor and outdoor experiences amidst pine trees and the lagoon, creating a multisensory journey combining warmth with traditional elegance.

The wet area features a complete thermal circuit: traditional hammam with eucalyptus essence, Finnish sauna with lagoon views, heated indoor pool, and jacuzzi, each element inviting a different tempo of restoration.

Each treatment draws from the region's natural treasures: olive seed scrubs, rassoul clay rituals, black soap ceremonies, and grape-based therapies honoring local savoir-faire.

The menu features ancestral Mediterranean techniques for face and body.

In partnership with Reboost, the wellness center embraces a holistic approach toward sleep, nutrition, focus, and movement.

A RARE EXPRESSION
OF FRENCH ART DE VIVRE

Flavors of the South

REFINED MEDITERRANEAN CUISINE SHAPED
BY THE REGION’S VINEYARDS AND PRODUCE.

The Main Restaurant is where the soul of the South finds its purest expression. Each season dictates the menu, guided by local growers and nearby farms. Spacious terraces open onto Thau lagoon views, where changing light transforms every meal into a moment of contemplation.

From the first bite, the connection to this land becomes evident.

Thau oysters glisten with minerality, paired with crisp estate wines.

Slow-roasted lamb, perfumed with wild rosemary from the garrigue, arrives tender and fragrant. Spring brings delicate zucchini flowers stuffed with local goat cheese, their golden petals capturing the season’s fleeting magic.

This is cuisine as poetry, a celebration of place and time, where tradition meets innovation on terraces warmed by the southern sun.

Beach Club

THE MEDITERRANEAN SOUL BY THE THAU LAGOON

In Montpenèdre, the Beach Club reveals a privileged sanctuary facing the Thau Lagoon. Sunbeds beneath olive trees, the Oysters Shack to savor fresh oysters from the basin, picnics on lawns sloping down to the lagoon. A place where nature, water and the art of living meet.

MyOasis

WHERE FORGOTTEN FLAVORS
MEET TOMORROW'S CUISINE

The MyOasis Foundation is a non-profit organization dedicated to transforming our planet into a living oasis. At PORT MARSEILLAN, the Foundation establishes its third experimental sanctuary: a 15-hectare living laboratory on the shores of the Thau Lagoon, launching in 2025.

At the heart of this vision lies the restoration of forgotten vegetables, heirloom varieties abandoned by modern agriculture. We have lost 80% of our plant biodiversity; ancient varieties rich in polyphenols and vitamins are being rediscovered as true “superfoods.”

The farm cultivates drought-resistant heritage seeds adapted to Mediterranean ecosystems. Through agroforestry and regenerative practices, the Foundation creates a model for sustainable living.

Residents and guests are invited to participate in workshops and seasonal harvests — reconnecting with the land, food, and health.

Wine & Lifestyle Academy

A JOURNEY TO THE HEART OF MEDITERRANEAN TERROIRS

At the heart of PORT MARSEILLAN, the Wine & Lifestyle Academy celebrates wine heritage and Mediterranean vitality, merging experiences, culture and learning around wine and gastronomy.

Located in the Languedoc-Roussillon wine region, the Academy welcomes sommeliers, Michelin-starred chefs and winemakers for exclusive workshops where tradition and innovation meet.

The experiences explore every aspect of wine artistry: soils, grape varieties, harvest, cellar work. Expert-led tastings reveal the art of pairing wines with Mediterranean cuisine.

For groups, the Academy offers personalized cuvées with custom labels, transforming each celebration into an unforgettable memory.

Here, each tasting becomes a journey, each workshop a discovery.

THE RESIDENCES

Sanctuaries of light by the lagoon

At PORT MARSEILLAN, every residence is a personal retreat shaped by Mediterranean light and the gentle presence of the Thau lagoon. Each home offers its own way of embracing the Southern art of living.

Five distinctive collections compose this offering: Waterfront Villas for ultimate space and privacy; Pool Villas inspired by winegrowers' houses; Garden Suites with direct access to gardens; Apartments blending village charm with contemporary comfort; and Penthouses offering panoramic views.

Each residence shares the same commitment to noble materials, thoughtful design, and seamless connection between interior and exterior living.

WATERFRONT VILLAS

Where the Thau lagoon becomes your horizon

The pinnacle of PORT MARSEILLAN living. Thick stone walls, vast bay windows that disappear into the walls, and a 13.5-meter infinity pool stretching toward the lagoon.

Ground floor living opens onto private terraces and gardens. Upstairs, four ensuite bedrooms with views across vineyards and sea. Below, a private wellness suite, wine cellar, and entertainment spaces, resort-level amenities in complete privacy. A pergola crafted from recycled oyster tables honors the lagoon's heritage.
